Slightly oval form, openwork, with a stylized crown on the top. The band of the crown is made of seven rubies set in a row, the branches are enamel painted. To the central branch a hanger is attached. The right and left arches of the oval form are made of five pairs of small rubies set in a row. In the middle is a larger ruby surrounded with a flower-shaped rosette decorated with fine white and black enamel painting. Around it are eight medium size rubies of similar setting. There are three hangers below with baroque pearls.
