The ball-shaped bowl stands on a small, high foot, ending in a pipe-like neck that bulges at the bottom and ends in a splaying rim. The pink glass foot is decorated with red, transparent enamel painting running all round and lined with a gilt stripe. The colourless, transparent glass body is painted in polychrome, transparent enamel with historicizing, Hungarian ornaments of stylized pomegranate and pink motifs, enframed by gold. The neck is uranic green glass, lined with stylised plant motifs along the top rim.
