The inside of the round, deep dish is lined with a rising, narrow rim. The surface shows a monochrome picture, painted with the shades of brown, among rays: a landscape, with a ruin in the background. The purple, marbled rim is enriched with four landscapes with buildings, in oval fields. The border is lined with a dark lilac stripe. There is an impressed inscription "WINTER", and another one, painted in lilac over glaze: "Carolina Lütz". Matyas Winter was the owner of the stoneware manufacture in Papa, while Carolina Lütz was probably one of the painters.
