The slightly flat, drum-shaped body stands on an oval foot. Its long, ornamented neck ends in a pierced ball top, which is connected with the body with an S-shaped handle. On the other side, there is a long, curved spout. The middle of the body is decorated with a moulded rosette, enclosed by moulded and painted flower and leaf motifs. The neck and the spout show moulded leaf and ogee ornaments, spots and division lines that are filled with moulded glaze decoration applied overglaze. The basic glaze is brown and transparent.
