

Coffee pot with lid

Metalwork Collection

Accession Nr.: 57.635.1.1-2

Date of production: late 18th century

Place of production: Germany

Inscription: alján németországi hitelesítő jegy

Materials: pewter

Techniques: engraved decoration

Dimensions: height: 25 cm width: 18,5 cm
diameter: 5,5 cm

The pot and the jug stand on round, jointed feet of string of pearl decoration. Their bodies are fluted and decorated with repoussé floral garlands. They have, narrow necks, of which the top parts show repoussé strings of pearls, the plain necks end in a fluted rim lined with string of pearls. Thin, double scroll handle the S-shaped spout is fluted at the bottom and plain at the top. The cover has similar ornaments, with a vase finial.

The sugar bowl is egg-shaped, with similar decoration, twisted handles ending in flutes.

The oval tray has a lobed rim, lined with string of pearls.

The reverses of all pieces are equipped with the authenticity mark of Germany.

Literature

- Szerk.: Péter Márta: A klasszicizmustól a biedermeierig. Az európai iparművészet stíluskorszakai. Iparművészeti Múzeum, Budapest, 1990. - Nr. 1.72. (Békési Éva)
- Szerk.: Voit Pál: Ónművesség. Régiségek könyve. Gondolat Kiadó, Budapest, 1983. - 7. kép (Weiner Piroska)

