Dimensions:	height: 45 cm width: 53,5 cm

Embroidered or applied motifs in mainly rectangular frames, on a beige silk base, showing huts, bunches of flowers, butterflies, a bird sitting on a branch, a helmet and a sword, a lute, and an anchor. There is a willow embroidered in silk, with a column showing the date 1838 below. The middle shows the crowned coat of arms of Hungary, embroidered with beads and silk, with polychrome glass glued on. To the right is a name - Pongracz Xaver - in a framed field, embroidered with hair. The frame is constructed of a serpent biting its own tail, embroidered in cotton thread.
