The large egg-shaped bowl stands on a narrow rimmed base and ends in a short neck with lobed rim. The broad flat handle fits to the neck and the body. Painted on an ivory coloured base with a stylized laurel wreath, cut at four places with circles and with the coat of arms of the Montefeltro family, encircled by foliage and flowers. The shield is charged with a blue eagle against the golden dotted background. The eagle is ensigned with a yellow coronet. Twisted ribbons decorate the two sides of the handle they spring form two circular decorations of the laurel wreath.
