

Table

Furniture Collection

Accession Nr.: 77.118.1

Techniques: mother-of-pearl inlay

Dimensions: height: 78 cm diameter: 106 cm

The legs shape bat figures with folded wings. The five-lobed top is supported by the middle turned column. It is inlaid with mother-of-pearl birds and flowery boughs. The table was probably made on a European order it comes from the castle of Count Nadasdy at Nadasladany (Fejer county).

Literature

- a kiállítást rendezte: Batári Ferenc, Vadászi Erzsébet: Historizmus és eklektika. Az európai iparművészet stíluskorszakai. Iparművészeti Múzeum, Budapest, 1992. - Nr. 33

