The table stands on four splayed, cylindrical, fluted legs, equipped with rolls. The flutes are enriched with embedded bronze garlands of leaves at the top. The curved shelf serves as a stretcher its edge is lined with bronze decoration. The round top is enframed by bronze strips, and covered with gray marble, with a round hole in the middle, which was made for holding the missing top structure. Under the top, the frieze is decorated by four rectangles of mounted strings of pearls.
