

Desk

Furniture Collection

Accession Nr.: 71.38.1

Artist/Maker: Heumann, Mór / manufacturer
Jakab, Dezső (1864 - 1932) / designer

Date of production: ca. 1900

Place of production: Budapest

Materials: limewood; metal studs; pinewood

Techniques: carved

Dimensions: height: 73 cm width: 151 cm
depth: 82,5 cm

The desk stands on four protruding feet. The inner front has two doors flanked by turned columns. The door panels are carved with stylized, Hungarian floral motifs. The frieze conceals a drawer in the middle and another above each door. The sides are also carved. The top is plain and rectangular.

Literature

- a kiállítást rendezte: Batári Ferenc, Vadászi Erzsébet: Historizmus és eklektika. Az európai iparművészet stíluskorszakai. Iparművészeti Múzeum, Budapest, 1992. - Nr. 66. (Kiss Éva)

