

Cards - for dice game

Archive

Accession Nr.: 53.2628.1-29

Date of production: ca. 1830

Place of production: Austria

Materials: paper

Techniques: coloured; engraving

Dimensions: height: 7,9 cm width: 5,5 cm

The cards are divided into a larger field at the top and two smaller halves at the bottom. The top field shows a picture, while there are dices with dots and the inscription „gewinnt” [numeral] on the bottom at the left and dices with dots and the inscriptions Courier, Ritter, Doctor, Schiffs-Capitain, Dame and zahlt [numeral] on the bottom field at the right. The pictures are the following: On the Courier cards - postal cart, eagle, postal horn, letter, pistols. On the Ritter cards - horse, helmet, spurs, sword, spear. On the doctor cards - bookcase, medicine cup-board, armchair, hat. On the Schiffs-Capitain cards - sailboat, anchor. On the Dame cards - bunch of flowers, mirror Freibillet - for the winner number (1-5) and a separate card for „gewinnt Alles”.

Literature

- Szerk.: Péter Márta: A klasszicizmustól a biedermeierig. Az európai iparművészet stíluskorszakai. Iparművészeti Múzeum, Budapest, 1990. - Nr. 3.30. (Lovay Zsuzsanna)

