

Ring

Metalwork Collection

Accession Nr.: 66.77.1

Date of production: late 19th - early 20th century

Place of production: Germany (presumably)

Techniques: pierced decoration

Dimensions: diameter: 2,7 cm width: 1,2 cm
weight: 19,50 g

The historicizing version of renaissance jewels, consisting of five, intertwined circles, which, when opened, create a chain. There is a plaited decoration at the bottom of the circles the top shows a flower stem on both sides. The head is octagonal, plain and flat, equipped with a hook that fixes the circles together.

Literature

- a kiállítást rendezte: Batári Ferenc, Vadászi Erzsébet: Historizmus és eklektika. Az európai iparművészet stíluskorszakai. Iparművészeti Múzeum, Budapest, 1992. - Nr. 499. (Békési Éva)

