The Gothic-style cup stands on a nine-lobed, plain foot rim and a blown foot rimmed with bull's-eye motifs. The stem is twisted and ribbed its top is surrounded by a leaves and with protruding, stylised, cast hip berries. The cup is bell-shaped, blown and twisted at the bottom and decorated with hip berries on three applied leaves at the top. The vertical top rim is equipped with a twisted wire at the bottom the edge is lined with foliage. The decoration of the cover is similar to those on the body there is a bizarre figure in leaf skirt, wearing a crown, standing on top of the fluted, mushroom finial.
