The pear-shaped body of a splayed top rim stands on a round foot with a rim of zigzag faceting, its neck has a ring the stopper forms a flower. The foot is marbled in greenish-brown colour the body is divided into nine fields of amber "lithyalin" glass. The nine fields show olive faceted niches of lithyalin. The neck is faceted into four-teen sides the ringed part has fourteen ball- faceted decorations. The bottom of the body and the neck are decorated with gilt lines. It is an excellent piece of Classicist style lithyalin glass-ware.
