

Photograph

Archive / Collection of Photographs

|                      |                                                                                            |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Accession Nr.:       | FLT 2875  |
| Artist/Maker:        | Fodor, Leo Gyula / glass-engraver                                                          |
| Date of production:  | ca. 1900                                                                                   |
| Place of production: | Budapest                                                                                   |
| Materials:           | paper                                                                                      |
| Techniques:          | black and white photo; glued on cardboard                                                  |
| Dimensions:          | full size: 21,4 x 18,1 cmheight: 14,4 cmwidth: 18 cm                               |

